desire they entertain to act up to the very distinguished Patronage they have so long experienced. They hazard little in the opinion, that the Question involved in it is of the first Interest and Importance; and, it is presumed, they will not hazard less, in expressing their most sanguine hopes, that from the Copiousness of Detail, the Fidelity of Argument, and the Accuracy of Expression, with which this Debate is given, it will afford a very superior gratification to the Public Mind.

A few Copies of this Interesting Debate may be had separate, price 2s 6d.
